Consent, Cybercrimes and the Law

eastern community legal centre

Eastern Community Legal Centre (ECLC) provides education for young people living in Naarm's/Melbourne's East on Consent, Cybercrimes and the Law.

The package is presented across two 1 hour sessions that can be delivered together or as individual sessions for a competitive fee. Topics include Consent, Cyberbullying, Sexual Harassment, Sexting, Image-Based Abuse and the law.

Consent, Cybercrimes and the Law sessions are designed for years 7 to 12 and include case studies, videos and opportunities for student interaction.

Sessions can be delivered to small student groups or entire year levels and are tailored to the group size and year level.

Session content is aligned with the Victorian Respectful Relationships curriculum and supports schools to deliver the required consent education to all year levels.
